Federal Student Aid Programs: Your application was selected for review in a process called “Verification.” In this process, the Office of Financial Aid will be comparing information from your FAFSA application with you and your parent(s) financial documents. We are required to review your FAFSA information under financial aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668). The law states we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal Aid. If there are differences between your application information and your financial documents, corrections to your FAFSA may be required.
